01/10/2018 Announces

In order to develop the intellectual property data exchange system between public institutions with responsibilities in the field of protection and enforcement of intellectual property rights in the Republic of Moldova, the procedure for the recruitment of a non-key expert (software developer) within the European Union Project “Support to Enforcement of Intellectual Property Rights in the Republic of Moldova” was launched, for the development of the mentioned data exchange system.

The vacancy reference terms and requirements for the expert are published at https://www.civic.md/angajari/40379-eu-vacancy-senior-non-key-expert-s-software-developer.html [1].

Source URL: https://agepi.md/en/news/contest-fill-vacancy-non-key-expert-software-developer-within-european-union-project