The 25th edition of the International Festival-Contest of World Talents “Little Prince” was held On May 26-27, in Chisinau. The State Agency on Intellectual Property (AGEPI) participated as a partner of the Festival-Contest.

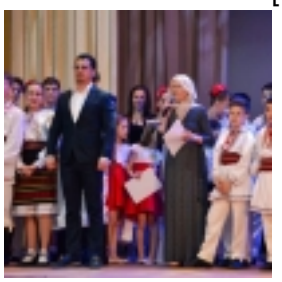

About 150 young talents from the Republic of Moldova, Romania, Georgia, Ukraine, Italy and Bulgaria participated in the current edition, at the three sections (song, dance, own poetry) of the Contest. The International Jury identified the best. The awards were awarded at the Gala Concert, which took place on May 27 at the Palace of the Republic.

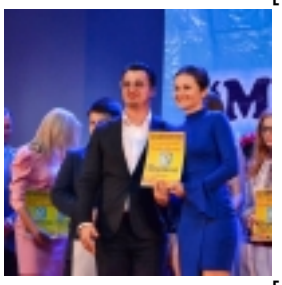

AGEPI Deputy Director General Andrei Popa participated in the award ceremony, awarding diplomas and prizes to the winners of the contest. AGEPI was mentioned by the organizers of the International Festival-Contest of World Talents “Little Prince” with a Diploma of Gratitude for the Support of Young Talents.

The International Festival-Contest of World Talents “Little Prince” is a project of Dan and Renata Verejanu, launched in 1993 at the local level, 1994 - at national level, 1995 - at international level, and is implemented annually by volunteers from the World Organization of Talented Children and the team “Little Prince”.

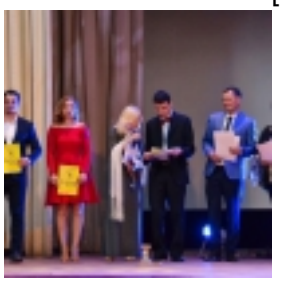

The State Agency on Intellectual Property will always come to meet and promote the needs of talented children and young people.
