„Intellectus”, Journal of Intellectual Property, Science and Education

The Journal of Intellectual Property, Science and Education “Intellectus" is a peer-reviewed, open-access scientific publication, accredited by the Decision of the Management Board of the National Agency for Quality Assurance4 in Education and Research No. 23 of September 30, 2022 on the Evaluation, Classification and Monitoring of Scientific Journals, in the classification category B for the profiles: Legal Sciences; Economics; Engineering Sciences and Technologies.

The journal multilaterally and competently reflects aspects of intellectual property protection, deals with modern scientific and educational phenomena, their development, promotes valuable fundamental and applied research in the fields of science, economics, education and engineering, new technologies and scientific performance results for the purpose of their innovative application, as well as scientific and methodological studies on intellectual treasury of the Republic of Moldova.

Source URL: https://agepi.md/en/intellectus