04/27/2020 Events

In the context of World Intellectual Property Day, which this year is marked under the motto: Innovate for a Green Future, the State Agency on Intellectual Property (AGEPI) invites you to participate in the webinar on “Innovations and Intellectual Property in Pandemic Times”, which will take place on April 28, 2020, at 11.00.

The webinar is organized by AGEPI in cooperation with the project “Jean Monnet Support to Associations in European Integration and Intellectual Property Protection Studies / EUPROIN”.

In the event will participate as speakers:

- Georgiana Constantin-Parke, Austrian Economics Center
- Natalia Caisim, Interim Head of Patents Department, AGEPI

The event will be organized on the Zoom platform, and registration can be done at the address https://docs.google.com/forms/ [1]. Language of the event: Romanian.

We remind you that since April 26, 2000, World Intellectual Property Day is marked annually to promote the role that intellectual property plays in encouraging innovation and creativity, in developing a knowledge-based society, in creating a prosperous and sustainable environment.
