The State Agency on Intellectual Property (AGEPI) invites all interested parties to participate in the “The Development of Intellectual Property in the EU and Moldova: Challenges and Perspectives”, which will be held on August 20, 2020, online.

The event originally planned for March 12, 2020, but postponed due to the COVID 19 pandemic, is organized by the Henri Capitant Moldova Legal Culture Association, within the Jean Monnet Chair project “European Union for Intellectual Property Rights” (EUPROIN), in partnership with AGEPI.

The purpose of the Conference is to strengthen the understanding and awareness of Moldovan researchers on the development of intellectual property (IP) in the EU and Moldova, to inform and raise awareness of NGO representatives and civil servants in our country on the importance of IP development for the integration and economic growth of Moldova, to analyze the achievements and problems of IP development in the EU and Moldova, to increase the visibility of Moldova’s research on issues related to IP protection, etc.

- Discussions at the conference will be structured on the following panels:
- Intellectual property and competition: interference and challenges,
- Intellectual property and creative industries,
- European integration and protection of intellectual property.

The Conference will be attended by representatives of public authorities, higher education institutions, research and development organizations and business environment.
