The State Agency on Intellectual Property (AGEPI) invites interested parties to participate in a workshop on intellectual property, organized by the School of Advanced Studies in Nova Gorica, Slovenia, within the project Fostering Innovation in the Danube Region through Knowledge Engineering and IPR Management (KnowING IPR).

The event will be organized on May 13, at 14.00, in English, on the ZOOM platform (https://zoom.us/j/96985547421 [1]). Those interested can register at the following address: https://forms.gle/ViRCqpvrJ6Ka1RiZ6 [2].

During the Workshop will be addressed intellectual property policy in the project member countries as well as identified possible recommendations for improving the legal framework and policy in the field in the context of the challenges facing the states of the Danube Region at this stage.

At the end of the work, the organizers intend to hold a brainstorming session on how the policy recommendations identified in the workshop could contribute to different priority areas of the EU Strategy for the Danube Region (https://danube-region.eu/about/priority-areas [3]).

More details, including the agenda of the event are available on the project website at: http://www.interreg-danube.eu/news-and-events/programme-news-and-events/6225 [4].
