Motivational speaker and author No.1 in the world, Brian Tracy, held a seminar on October 13 in Chisinau. State Agency on Intellectual Property (AGEPI) was the general partner of the event.

Nearly 800 people from across the country, interested in professional and personal development, attended the seminar entitled “Maximum Achievement”.

The event was opened by the AGEPI Director General Octavian Apostol, who spoke to the participants about the role of intellectual property in developing a successful business. Also, AGEPI was present at the seminar with an exhibition stand, where those present received free consultations on registration of intellectual property objects and could conduct document searches in databases managed by the State Agency on Intellectual Property. At the same time, AGEPI has presented an exhibition of counterfeit products.

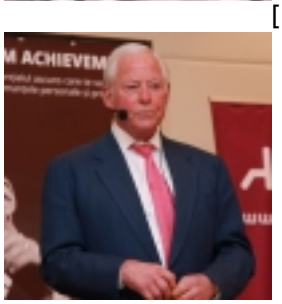

Brian Tracy has revealed to the participants proven principles that bring long-term results. The motivational author No.1 in the world, Brian Tracy, also spoke to the participants about the most important factors influencing life and how they can be used for personal gain, which is the real reason for which some people and companies are more successful than others and how to apply it in their own work, and what is the way in which the most successful people in the world think.

The Seminar “Maximum Achievement” was organized in 75 countries and is considered the most popular personal development course in the world.

Brian Tracy is an entrepreneur, professional speaker and author of over 300 works, which have become bestsellers. He is known around the world for the important steps made in the spread of the phenomenon of personal and professional growth.
