The State Agency on Intellectual Property (AGEPI) is participating, on 10-14 April 2019, together with a group of inventors and researchers from the Republic of Moldova, in the 47th edition of the International Exhibition of Inventions in Geneva, Switzerland.

The exhibition was opened by Claude Membrez, Director General of the Exhibition Center in Geneva PALEXPO SA. The opening ceremony was also attended by the Director General of the World Intellectual Property Organization Francis Gurry, representatives of international organizations based in Geneva, of the diplomatic corps accredited in the Swiss Confederation, including the representatives of the Mission of the Republic of Moldova to the UN Office in Geneva.

At the exhibition stand of the Republic of Moldova are exhibited 7 inventions of the Moldovan inventors who were registered at the exhibition, as well as informative materials referring to the national intellectual property system.

The International Exhibition of Inventions in Geneva is the most prestigious event in the world exclusively devoted to inventions and organized under the high patronage of the Swiss Federal Government, the City of Geneva and of the World Intellectual Property Organization.
