15.02.2021 События

The State Agency for Intellectual Property (AGEPI) invites all interested parties to participate in the Conference “The Development of Intellectual Property in the EU and Moldova: Challenges and Perspectives”, second edition, which will take place on March 12, 2021. The event is organized by the Association of Legal Culture Henri Capitant Moldova in collaboration with AGEPI.

The purpose of the Conference is to strengthen understanding and awareness of researchers in Moldova on intellectual property (IP) development in EU and Moldova, to inform and raise awareness of NGO representatives and civil servants in our country on the importance of IP development for Moldova’s integration and economic growth, to analyze the achievements and problems of IP development in EU and Moldova, to increase the research visibility of the Republic of Moldova on issues related to IP protection, etc.

The discussions in the conference will be structured on the following panels:

- Intellectual property and Competition: interference and challenges,
- Intellectual property and creative industries,
- European integration and intellectual property protection.

The Conference will be attended by representatives of public authorities, higher education institutions, research and development organizations and the business environment.

Those wishing to attend the event are encouraged to register at the following link - https://forms.gle/DCBsiTrSKHJhkA6C6 [1].

More details about the event can be found on the EUPROIN project website: www.euproin.md [2].

Источник: https://agepi.md/ru/node/14891