The State Agency on Intellectual Property (AGEPI) invites both specialists active in the field of intellectual property (IP) and representatives of institutions and organizations in the sphere of science and innovation, of central public administration authorities with responsibilities in the field of enforcement of intellectual property rights, authorized attorney and counselors in intellectual property, inventors, teachers, students, master students and other interested persons to participate in the 25th edition of the Annual Scientific-Practical Symposium “AGEPI Readings”, entitled “Building Shared Future Through Innovation and Creativity”. The event will take place on April 25, 2024, in the premises of AGEPI.

The symposium is an annual event that is part of the series of manifestations dedicated to World Intellectual Property Day, marked annually on April 26. This year’s theme is “Intellectual Property and the Sustainable Development Goals: Building Our Shared Future Through Innovation and Creativity”.

The event is a good opportunity to promote new developments in the field of intellectual property, exchange experience, information and best practices, identify new perspectives for the effective management of the biggest challenges in intellectual property.

During the symposium, topics relevant to the field of intellectual property will be addressed, namely:

- Intellectual Property for the Sustainable Growth and Development; Integrating IP Tights into National Development Policies, Plans and Strategies;
- The Role of the IP System in Identifying, Protecting and Preserving the National Heritage in the Context of the Economic, Social and Cultural Development of the Republic of Moldova;
- The National and International Experience of Protecting and Enforcing IP Rights Through the Prism of the European Integration Process.

Registration of participants will be done by completing the registration form. Participation in the symposium is free. The event will take place in Romanian, in the Conference Hall of AGEPI.

The deadline for registration for the Symposium and for sending communications for presentation within it is April 15, 2024.
