23.06.2026 События

Today, on the occasion of the Public Servants' Day, established by the Government of the Republic of Moldova to recognize the significant contribution of public servants to the development of the country, the administration of the State Agency on Intellectual Property (AGEPI) sent a message of congratulations and appreciation to all public servants within the institution.

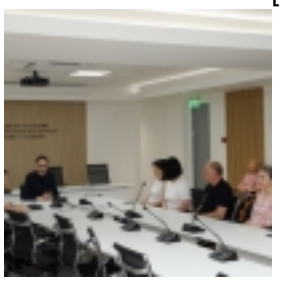

In the message sent, the AGEPI management highlighted the professionalism, responsibility and dedication of public servants, thanking them for the work carried out and for their contribution to the achievement of institutional objectives.

On the same occasion, in an atmosphere of cordiality, respect and gratitude, public servants of AGEPI who have completed 15, 20 and 25 years of fruitful activity in the field of intellectual property were awarded diplomas of gratitude for the dedication, competence, integrity and fairness they demonstrate in the exercise of their duties.

The appreciation expressed on this occasion reflects the important role of public servants in strengthening the national intellectual property protection system and in promoting a modern, efficient and citizen-oriented public administration.

Thanks to the sustained efforts of the entire team, AGEPI has recorded remarkable results over the years, establishing itself as a modern and competitive intellectual property office, capable of valorizing and promoting intellectual property as an essential factor of creativity, innovation and sustainable development of the Republic of Moldova.

[1]

[2]

Источник: https://agepi.md/ru/node/18348