23.01.2007 События

We inform you that in the period of February 5-8, 2007 on the territory of the Exhibition Center of Russian Federation will be held the VII-th Moscow International Exhibition on Innovations and Investments.

In the organization of the Exhibition will take place a competition of federal and regional executive bodies, embassies and representatives of commerce from Russian Federation and abroad, scientific centers and organizations, industrial enterprises, Federal Service on Intellectual Property, Patents and Trademarks of Russian Federation (ROSPATENT), Republican center of examination and scientific-consulting research of Russia et. al. The International Exhibition benefits the official assistance of the international organizations of the exhibitions and inventica, including the International Salon of Innovations, Research and New Technologies Brussels-Eureka.

The Moscow International Exhibition on Innovations and Investments serves to the join the interests of the inventors and produsers and has a scope to maintain innovations by representing innovative elaborations and projects in order to promote the high technologies and products on the interne and extern markets, as well as to attract investors for the competitive elaborations, organization of the meetings, determination of the market conjuncture, possibility of efficient using the intellectual resources and the industrial potential of the enterprises.

The Exhibition is a real and important international scientific-technological forum of the inventors and producers in the field of the new technology. In the frame of the exhibition there will take place seminars and round tables on the matters of crediting and commercializing the elaborations, utilization of the intellectual property, concluding contracts on financing and realization for a set of innovative and investments projects.

The prospective elaborations will be mentioned by the International Jury with medals and special prizes of the Exhibition. Moreover, the participants of the meeting will obtain prizes and mentions from the international organizations, among which: Association "Inova" (France), Center of the biologic investigations "Dinca Ancu" (Romania), International Association of Inventors of Hungary – MAFE and other well-know organizations from Belgium Czech Republic, Ukraine. During all the period of the Exhibition there were concluded 200 agreements, contracts and protocols of intentions in the field of energetic, biotechnology, mechanical engineering etc., fact that positively influences the implementation of innovations. The development of the inventive activity is the key factor of increasing the competitiveness of the enterprises on the intern and extern markets.

The expenses for the participation in the exhibition, transport and accommodation are supported by the participants. For details access: http://www.innovex.ru [1]

Источник: https://agepi.md/ru/node/4929