24.01.2008 События

We have honor to inform you that in the period of March 3-6, 2008 in the precinct of the Exhibition Center, Russian Federation will start the VIII-th International Salon of Innovations and Investments in Moscow. The Salon is maintained by the international organizations of exhibitions and inventica, including the International Salon of Innovations and New Technologies „Brussels-Eureka".

The International Salon of Innovations and Investments in Moscow has a mission to unify the interests of the inventors and producers in order to represent the innovative elaborations and projects, promotion of the high technologies and products in the interne and extern markets, as well as attraction of the investments in order to use the competitive elaborations, organization of the reunions, determination of the market state, opportunity to use efficiently the intellectual resources and the industrial potential of the enterprises.

The present action is a real international scientific-technical for of the inventors and producers in the field of new technologies. In the frame thereof it is assumed carrying out and organization of seminars and round tables on the matters of crediting policy and commercialization of the elaborations, utilization of the intellectual property, concluding contracts on financing and realization for a set of innovative and investment projects. The last year in the work of the salon took part about 600 organizations from Russian Federation and 20 – from the other countries. The prospective elaborations will be mentioned with medals and diploma of the Salon. Besides, the participants have chances to be mentioned and awarded by the international organizations.

The details on the address: http://www.innovex.ru [1]

Источник: https://agepi.md/ru/node/5327