05.03.2008 События

In the period of April 1-4, 2008 in Moscow will take place the XII-th International Intellectual Property Exhibition – “Archimede-2008”.

The exhibition serve to conjugate the interests of inventors and producers, having the scope to sustain the innovators in representation of the innovative elaborations and projects in order to promote the high technologies and products in the intern and extern markets, as well as to attract the potential investors of the competitive elaborations, organization of reunions, determining the market condition, possibility of the effective utilization of the intellectual resources and industrial potential of the enterprises.

The prospective elaborations will be mentioned by the International Jury with the Grand Pris, gold and silver medals and special diploma of the Exhibition.

For the details access http://www.fips.ru/rospatent/index.htm [1].

Источник: https://agepi.md/ru/node/5331