02.12.2015 События

On 30 November this year, at the National Institute of Justice (NIJ), was held the seminar entitled “Practical Aspects on the Enforcement of Intellectual Property Law”.

The event was organized by NIJ, and the list of participants included representatives of the justice sector, particularly judges and prosecutors.

The aim of the seminar was to continue the training and retraining of personnel in the field of justice, a desideratum resulting from the Action Plan for the years 2015-2017 on the implementation of the National Intellectual Property Strategy until 2020.

The event agenda included several topics, focused primarily on the legal regulation of the exclusive right on trademarks and copyright and related rights. Presentations were treated through the prism of national judicial practice, and participants had the opportunity to comment on several case studies.

Trainers of the seminar Ion Ţiganas, Deputy Director General of the State Agency on Intellectual Property, and Rodica Popescu, Head of Legal Assistance Division of the Legal Department, AGEPI.

Источник: https://agepi.md/ru/node/9037