State Agency on Intellectual Property (AGEPI) is the general partner of the Seminar “Maximum Achievement” by Brian Tracy, to be held on October 13 at the Radisson Blu Leogrand Hotel in Chisinau.

During the seminar, participants will learn strategies that will help them increase their personal and professional results.

The event is expected to be attended by about 1 000 people.

Along with internationally renowned speaker Brian Tracy, on stage will also climb AGEPI Director General Octavian Apostol, who will speak to those present about the potential of intellectual property to develop a successful business.

AGEPI will present an exhibition of counterfeit products. At the same time, by the AGEPI stand, participants will receive free consultations on registration of intellectual property objects and will also be able to conduct document searches in databases managed by the State Agency on Intellectual Property.

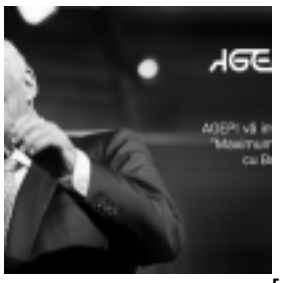

Organizer of the event is BIZZ training company, which promises that it will be the largest seminar this year.

The Seminar “Maximum Achievement” was organized in 75 countries and is considered the most popular personal development course in the world.

Brian Tracy is an entrepreneur, professional speaker and author of over 300 works, which have become bestsellers. He was the counselor of over 1 000 companies and has given over 5000 conferences for more than 5 million people.

We invite you to attend the Seminar “Maximum Achievement” by Brian Tracy.

Invest in personal development, to have a successful business!
